Go4Fun
Most parents know it can be a battle to get their child away from the TV and outside playing or switching from a can of soft drink for a bottle of water. Now there’s a free family lifestyle program in the Blacktown and Mt Druitt areas that helps children and their families lead a healthier life.

It’s called Go4Fun and the emphasis is on the fun. Run over 10 weeks, Go4Fun is aimed at children 7 – 13 years who are above a healthy weight range. Children attend with a parent and enjoy fun and interactive games, healthy eating advice, a supermarket excursion and goal setting exercises.

Go4Fun Coordinator, Michelle Nolan says, “Over 630 families have participated in the program in Western Sydney, and the results have been very encouraging. We’re seeing significant improvements in children’s weight, waist measurement, activity levels, nutrition habits and self-esteem”.

Importantly, families enjoy attending with comments such as “Our family is more active and smiling”, (Karina, 8) “It’s fun”, (Chelsea, 12). Mother of 2, Rebecca says, “We love Go4Fun because there is good practical information about healthy eating for kids they can use in their everyday life”.

Healthy habits formed early can stay with a person beyond childhood.

From the Principal

St Mary MacKillop.

Dear Parents,

In today’s newsletter I want to speak to you about two issues relating to your children. The first issue is related to the all-important learning that your children are experiencing at St Aidan’s. It is now a requirement for teachers in each Catholic School in the Diocese of Parramatta to state/write a learning intention and success criteria for each lesson being taught. The reason for this is to give students clarity and purpose around their learning. When I visit students in their learning spaces, I don’t ask them what they are ‘doing’; I ask ‘what are you learning’?

If the teacher has explained the learning intention clearly students from kindergarten to year six are able to articulate the learning taking place.

I encourage parents to join the learning conversation by asking your children, ‘what is one thing you learnt today?’ If you get negative responses, it might be a good time to come and chat to your child’s teacher.

The second issue is about ‘grooming’. It is clearly stated in the Parent Information Booklet on the school’s website that St Aidan’s School has specific expectations about the students’ grooming. These expectations relate to uniform; hair and the wearing of jewellery.

Please read these expectations so you are able to ensure that your children’s haircuts, uniform and accessories are consistent with the school’s policy.

The students are reminded regularly about the school’s policy with uniform and grooming so none of these expectations come as a surprise to them.

When parents and school work together it gives a clear message to the children that ‘together we are one’. It is my deliberate intention to keep the St Aidan’s uniform basic yet attractive without fancy additions that put the price out of the reach of many.

Thank you to the large percentage of parents who fully support the school and its policies and who ensure that their children come to school each day wearing their uniform with pride.

You might remember supporting the school with the Woolworths ‘Earn and learn’ initiative last year. Your dockets were put to good use and the school purchased a large number of Mathematics resources with the points. Thank you again for your help. Hopefully Woolworths and Coles will organise similar initiatives later this year.

The Easter raffle is underway. Please don’t hesitate to collect additional books of tickets if required. The monies raised will be used for the purchase of resources for the students.

As term one concludes on Friday 11th April, parents are reminded of outstanding school fees. Please contact Mrs Wakeling at the school office if you are experiencing difficulty with the payment of school fees.

Don’t forget to ask your children, ‘what did you learn today?’ If you have any concerns about your children’s learning please make an appointment to meet with the appropriate teachers.

Thank you for your continued support.

Yours sincerely

Dr. Elizabeth Ricketts
Principal.
REFLECTION
In Matthew’s Gospel, Jesus is repeatedly named as the fulfilment of Hebrew prophecy. Jesus is the Messiah, the one who, it was foretold, would come to liberate the Jewish people. Many Jews expected him to overthrow the Romans and to rule as King. They did not understand his mission immediately.

Matthew’s Gospel recorded more of Jesus’ teaching concerning God’s heavenly kingdom than the other gospel writers, for example the Sermon on the Mount gave new insight into what was needed to enter the kingdom.

The purpose of the gospel was instruction to the community and sermon material for the leaders to address outsiders and rivals, like the Rabbits.

Mrs Silvana Murphy
Religious Education Coordinator.

Please remember to return the students’ Project Compassion boxes to the school by Monday 31st March (not to the Church).

EXCURSION POLICY
Excursions are a regular feature of our teaching program and parents are asked to cooperate by giving permission when required. Excursions may range from short, about the local district, to full day visits to places that offer specialized information and experiences.

Excursions are planned in order to provide the students with meaningful experiences outside the immediate environment. Such experiences must be relevant to the curriculum.

Mrs Christine Leahy
Assistant Principal.

LITERACY MATTERS
How can you help your child with reading?

♦ Show your child that you value reading by reading whenever you can.
♦ Encourage a positive attitude to books.
♦ Provide a variety of texts for your child to read to you, e.g. stories, comics, poems, plays, cartoons, reference books, magazines, children’s recipe books.
♦ Encourage your child to borrow books from the library.
♦ Point out words on street signs, packets and labels.
♦ Encourage your child to predict what a book is about from the cover and illustrations.

Mrs Christine Leahy
Lead Literacy Teacher.

NUMERACY NEWS
Rich open-ended tasks are a significant part of the numeracy block at St Aidan’s. It is a time when students engaged in Mathemathic tasks that are rich, real and relevant. Students engage with the task at their own level.

An example of a rich open-ended task could be: In the sports shed there are three times as many bats than balls. How many bats and balls are in the shed?

This task involves multiple answers and allows students to use materials or mental strategies to solve the problem. During this time the teacher supports, questions and gives feedback.

The strategies students use and the development of deep mathematical thinking are paramount when completing these tasks.

Reflection time will be explored in the next newsletter.

What Mathematics will you notice, discuss and explore with your child this week?

Miss Prudence Hall
Lead Numeracy Teacher

SCHOOL FEES
Term one School fees are now overdue. If you are not up to date with your fees please contact Mrs Wakeling to discuss payment options/arrangements on (02) 9625 3181.

SUPERVISION
♦ Gates are opened and teacher supervision begins at 8:15am.
♦ Parents may escort their children onto the playground however, due to child protection, are required to wait in the parent waiting area (silver seats) near the year four classroom.
♦ The bell is rung at 8:45am—students walk quietly to lines.
♦ After assembly parents are asked to move quickly out of the playground through the gate between kindergarten and year two or the gate near the church if it is unlocked
♦ The gates are locked promptly once parents leave.
♦ In the afternoon the dismissal bell rings at 2:55pm. Parents may wait in the parent waiting area or park legally and wait at Kimberley Park for student walkers to meet them.
♦ There is no ‘kiss and drop’ area in the afternoon.
♦ Supervision of students finishes at 3:25pm promptly.
