From the Principal

3rd June 2016

Dear Parents,

When reciting the ten commandments, one begins with the word 'remember'. It reminds us to recall something we already know. There are commandments of mercy written into our very DNA. We already know them but we need to remember them.

The ten commandments of Mercy:

1. Remember that mercy lies deepest in God's heart.

Mercy is God's essence. Scripture uses words such as loving-kindness and compassions to try to define what constitutes God's mercy, but the central biblical concept, captured in the Hebrew concept of hesed, connotes a relationship that loves, embraces and forgives even when we cannot measure up or deserve what's given us.

2. Remember that mercy is the essence of all true religion.

Inside religion and spirituality, within all faiths, three things try to lay claim to what's central: proper religious practice, outreach to the poor and compassion. Ultimately they are not in opposition, but complementary pieces of one religious whole. Deepest inside every religion is the invitation: Be compassionate and merciful as God is compassionate.

3. Remember that we all stand forever in need of mercy.

There is more rejoicing in heaven over one sinner who converts than over ninety-nine righteous persons. Does God love sinners more than the righteous? There are no righteous persons. It's just that we feel God's love more when we admit that we're sinners. None of us ever measures up but, as St Paul so consolingly teaches, the whole point is that we don't have to measure up. That's what mercy means. It's undeserved by definition.

4. Remember that having received mercy, we must show mercy to others.

We only receive and appropriate God's mercy and the mercy of others when we extend that same mercy to others.

5. Remember that only the practice of mercy sets us free.

Receiving and giving mercy is the only thing that frees from our congenital propensity to self seek, self justify and judge others. Nothing frees us more from the tyranny of ego than does the practice of mercy.

6. Remember that mercy is not opposed to justice, but its fulfillment.

Mercy, as Walter Kasper so aptly puts it, is not 'a kind of fabric softener that undermines the dogmas and commandments and abrogates the central and fundamental meaning of truth'. That's the accusation the Pharisees made against Jesus. Mercy is where justice is meant to terminate.

7. Remember that only the practice of mercy will make God's kingdom come.

Jesus promised that one day the meek will inherit the earth, the poor will eat plentiful, rich food and all tears will be wiped away. That can only happen when mercy replaces self-interest.

8. Remember that mercy need to be practised collectively.

It is not enough for us to be merciful in our own lives. Mercy is marginalised in a society that doesn't sufficiently attend to those who are weak or needy, just as it is marginalised in a church that is judgemental. We must create a society that is merciful. Mercy alone enables the survival of the weakest.

9. Remember that mercy call us to do works both spiritual and physical.

Our Christian faith challenges us to perform mercy in a double way; corporeally and spiritually. The classic corporal works of mercy are: feed the hungry; give drink to the thirsty; shelter the homeless; clothe the naked; visit the sick and imprisoned and bury the dead. God has given us different gifts and all of us are better at some of these than at others, but mercy is manifest in each of them.

10. Remember that our lives are a dialogue between God's mercy and our weaknesses.

The only thing at which we are adequate is being inadequate. We are forever falling short of something, no matter the strength of our sincerity, good intention and willpower. Only mercy; receiving it and giving it, can lead us out of the choppy waters of our own anxieties, worry and joylessness. Only in knowing mercy do we know gratitude.

From the Principal (continued)

This year 2016, Pope Francis has asked us all to live a year of mercy; to contemplate the mystery of mercy as a wellspring of joy, serenity and peace. Mercy, he believes is the secret to putting a credible face to God, to put a credible face to our churches and to walking with steadiness inside our own lives.

Thank you to the families who supported our 'jersey day' fundraiser for WYD. $730 was donated towards sending pilgrims to the Philippines and Poland in July.

Congratulations to the stage three boys (Hall of Fame) who represented St Aidan's at the Soccer Gala day yesterday. Thank you to Mrs Upton for giving up her time to coach the team.

Thank you for your continued support.

Yours sincerely

Dr. Elizabeth Ricketts
Principal.

STAGE THREE LITERACY

Stage Three: Working with comprehension strategies

Comprehension involves the development of critical thinking about texts. As students and adults read a text of any kind, it is important to pay attention to the social and cultural perspectives that are contained in the text. Readers will need to consider these perspectives as they present the author's point of view and purpose.

The development of critical thinking is a part of every comprehension strategy. In particular, critical thinking can be explored as the students learn to use the strategies of inferring, questioning, analysing, making connections and evaluating. These strategies will be explained in greater depth over the next few weeks.

Mr Ian Byrne
Acting Assistant Principal.

NUMERACY NEWS

Children in the middle years of learning require many opportunities to explore three and four digit numbers and understand where they fit on a number line.

What can you do at home to support your child?

- ◆ Create an empty number line with two numbers at each end. Ask your child to find the middle of the number line and explain their thinking.

- ◆ Ask your child to recall the number 10/100 more or 10/100 less. For example what is 100 more than 499? Encourage your child to explain their thinking.

In the next newsletter I will explore interpreting numbers in the upper years (Year 5-6) .

What mathematics will you notice, discuss and explore with your child this week?

Miss Prudence Hall
Lead Numeracy Teacher.

BUILDING CHILD SAFE COMMUNITIES – NEW FORMS FOR ALL VOLUNTEERS

INCLUDING EXISTING PARENT HELPERS

'Building Child Safe Communities' is a new initiative developed by Catholic Education Diocese of Parramatta that enhances our commitment to ensuring the safety and wellbeing of all students in our care. It is now a requirement that all volunteers and contractors complete an online undertaking form that confirms expectations in relation to behaviour whilst volunteering or contracting at schools, Catholic Out of Schools Hours Care and Catholic Early Learning Centres. This undertaking form also seeks to determine the suitability of volunteers and contractors by requiring them to declare that they do not have a criminal history involving children.

Volunteers – please click on 'Building Child Safe Communities – Undertaking for Volunteers' or access the form via the Catholic Education Diocese of Parramatta public webpage <http://www.parra.catholic.edu.au>, then click on 'Child Protection Training Forms' (halfway down page on the right hand side).

Then click on 'Volunteer Form' (halfway down page).

You will receive a confirmation email once the form has been submitted. Your details are maintained confidentially in a central database and a copy of your confirmation is emailed to the location where you are volunteering.

SUPERVISION

- Gates are opened and teacher supervision begins at 8:15am
- Parents may escort their children onto the playground and due to child protection are required to wait in the parent waiting area (silver seats) near the year four classroom.
- The bell rings at 8:40am—students walk quietly to lines
- After assembly parents are asked to move out of the playground through the gate between year two and Kindergarten.
- Gates are locked promptly once parents leave
- In the afternoon the dismissal bell rings at 2:55pm. Parents may wait in the shade area near the church garden or park in the surrounding streets. Children are walked by a teacher to the upper crossing in Adelaide Street and to the Kimberley Street crossing to meet parents.
